A wry look at the changing image of NZ's air hostesses. Filmmaker Present.

MY VOYAGE TO ITALY Embassy, Today at 11.15 am

Martin Scorsese treats us to a lavishly illustrated tour of classic Italian cinema.

GOOD HUSBAND, DEAR SON Lunchtime Screenings

City Gallery, Today at 12.15 pm and 1.30 pm

Dutch filmmaker Heddy Honigmann (Crazy) evokes the ghosts of the Bosnian conflict.

SECRET BALLOT Paramount, Today at 1.00 pm

(G) A lightly absurdist and delicately romantic parable set on a picturesque sun-baked Iranian island.

LATE MARRIAGE Paramount, Today at 3.15 pm

(R16 sex) A caustic romantic comedy concerning a happily unmarried man under maternal pressure.

ABC AFRICA Te Papa, Today at 4.00 pm

A richly detailed account of the extraordinary aid work to save Ugandan orphans.

24 HOUR PARTY PEOPLE Embassy, Today at 4.00 pm

(R16 violence, off lang, drug use, sex) "A dirty, fabulously debauched British club legend." - Ell?

DERRIDA Paramount, Tonight at 6.00 pm

An enlightening documentary about French deconstructive philosopher Jacques Derrida.

MES PETITES AMOUREUSES Te Papa, Tonight at 6.15 pm

(M sexual themes) This rarely seen French classic lovingly details the rituals of teenage courtship and friendship.

TAKING SIDES Embassy, Tonight at 6.30 pm

(M off lang) Handsomely mounted dramatisation of a legendary conductor's investigation for Nazism.

SUNSHINE STATE Paramount, Tonight at 8.15 pm

(M) John Sayles' multi-storied mosaic of life in a small seaside Florida town destabilized by rampant property development.

THE ORPHAN OF ANYANG Te Papa, Tonight at 8.45 pm

(M off lang, sex themes) A simple, hyper-realistic drama of the lives revolving around a young foundling.

THIS FILTHY EARTH Embassy, Tonight at 8.45 pm

(R16 violence, off lang, sex) A nightmarish vision of rural simplicity! Brilliant filmmaking but not for the faint-hearted.
