Biography

Born on June 22, 1940 in Tehran, Abbas Kiarostami is a graduate of University of Tehran's Faculty of Fine Arts in painting.

At 20, he became involved in painting, graphics, book illustration, making the credit titles and commercials. The high quality of his commercials paved his way to join the newly-founded Institute for the Intellectual Development of Children And Young Adults where he established the Institute's prestigious film department. He ran the department for 5 years and produced a number of best films in the history of Iranian cinema. At the same time, he started his film career by making "The Bread And Alley" in 1970.

Abbas Kiarostami has already made 23 films (8 features & 15 short films) that 21 titles out of them have screened at the 355 world festivals and got 37 International awards.
