REVIEWS

"A BRIGHT, ENERGETIC, SIDE-SPLITTING COMEDY! The kind of sharp-edged farce Woody Allen has always done best!"

— Janet Maslin, THE NEW YORK TIMES

"HILARIOUS! The relish with which John Cusack, Chazz Palminteri, Dianne Wiest and Jennifer Tilly feast upon their roles is contagious."

— David Ansen, NEWSWEEK

ABOUT THE FILM

Woody Allen's latest venture into hilarity is a probing perspective into the backstage world of make-believe. Disorganized theater people are exposed in a comical behind-the-scenes look at the realistic yet whimsical atmosphere that surrounds Broadway. Allen skillfully directs John Cusack as an ambitious 1920s playwright and Dianne Wiest ("The Lost Boys," "Parenthood") as a dynamic star of the stage with a powerful voice in this delightful Prohibition-era comedy that will provide your student-filled theater with an avalanche of laughs.

"BULLETS OVER BROADWAY" IS AN ESSENTIAL PIECE TO ANY WOODY ALLEN TRIBUTE WEEK

BULLETS OVER BROADWAY is an exceptional choice to add to a week hi-lighting the distinguished four-decade career of Woody Allen, one of the world's most revered filmmakers. Within his many films available from Swank Motion Pictures, Inc., Allen has explored many subjects in his years of acting, writing and directing. But the dissection of human relationships is practically his specialty. The timeless classic ANNIE HALL, 1978's Academy Award winner for Best Picture, is an excellent choice for a Woody Allen Week on your campus. HANNAH AND HER SISTERS, 1987's Academy Award winning picture for Best Original Screenplay and Best Supporting Actress and Actor, is a humorous expose into the lives of three sisters' relationships with each other and the opposite sex. EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT SEX BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK is a recklessly absurd look at sex as only Woody Allen could conceive. To round out the Woody Allen Dedication is the critically acclaimed CRIMES AND MISDEMEANORS, a fascinating story of intricately woven relationships set against a colorful Manhattan setting.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Woody Allen's distinguished film career spans four decades and 27 films, including 23 that he has directed. Allen was born in December of 1935 in Brooklyn, NY and began his brilliant motion picture career as an actor and co-screenwriter of 1969's hilarious comedy TAKE THE MONEY AND RUN. Ever since his fabulous debut, Allen has been enchanted with New York City as a backdrop for most of his films by incorporating the Big Apple virtually as a supporting character. Allen's other credits include MANHATTAN and Academy Award nominees BROADWAY DANNY ROSE and THE PURPLE ROSE OF CAIRO.
