

Document Citation

Title Alexandra

Author(s)

Source New York Film Festival

Date 10/04/2007

Type program note

Language English

Pagination

No. of Pages 1

Subjects

Film Subjects Alexandra, Sokurov, Aleksandr, 2007

Film Society of Lincoln Center

BUY TICKETS

MEMBERSHIP

SPONSORSHIP

ABOUT

SEARCH

WALTER READE THEATER

FILM COMMENT

NEW YORK FILM FESTIVAL

NEW DIRECTORS/NEW FILMS

SPECIAL EVENTS

NYFF 2007 Lineup

Feature Films

4 Months, 3 Weeks...

Actresses

Alexandra

The Axe in the Attic Before the Devil...

Blade Runner

Calle Santa Fe

The Darjeeling Limited

The Diving Bell...

Flight...Red Balloon

A Girl Cut in Two

Go Go Tales

I Just Didn't Do It

I'm Not There

...City of Sylvia
The Last Mistress

The Man From London

Margot...Wedding

Married Life

Mr. Warmth

No Country For...

The Orphanage

Paranoid Park

Porcopolic

Persepolis

Redacted
The Romance of...

Secret Sunshine

Stellet Licht

Useless

Special Events

Directors Dialogues

Avant-Garde

De Andrade

Chinese Modern

New Line Cinema Gala

Garfunkel Exhibit

Ticket Information

Location Information

Press/Industry Info About

Archive

Buy Tickets
THU OCT 4: 6
SAT OCT 6: 1:15

Alexandra

Series: The 45th New York Film Festival [Sep 28 - Oct 14 2007]

Director: Alexander Sokurov, Country: Russia, Release: 2007,

Runtime: 92

No living filmmaker has been more obsessed with the state of the Russian soul than Alexander Sokurov. In his viscerally powerful Alexandra, this great filmmaker ponders the cost of war. Mother Russia herself, a blunt, grimly humorous, and totally unintimidated babushka (indelibly played by octogenarian opera diva Galina Vishnevskaya) pays a visit to her grandson's unit in Chechnya. She rides among the young recruits in a troop transport and later, a tank; however incongruous, her tour of inspection through this dusty, sun-bleached landscape has a terrible familiarity. Seldom has a filmmaker so directly addressed his fellow citizens.