Broadway Danny Rose

Woody Allen's thirteenth film as director is his homage to the wonderful cabaret acts that he started out with — some of whom never made the big time; roller-skating penguins, one-legged tap dancers, and all.

Some of these performers were lucky enough to have a 'personal representative' like Danny Rose who was untiring in his efforts to keep them in work.

A group of Broadway veterans sit in the Carnegie Deli recalling Danny's finest hours which contain some classic comedy situations, played with superb timing by Woody and Mia Farrow.
