THE NEW AMERICAN FILM SOCIETY

First Series: December 12

Film Notes

A MOVIE by Bruce Conner (U.S.A., 1960). Traveling out from the steaming jungle of sex by Bruce Conner. Bruce Conner's dancing a hymn to the destruction of his own name: everybody buy Bruce Conner. If Bruce Conner is bought by everybody from every angle and repeated (Bruce Conner): the waves will break high on Taiwan and paint stay thick on his saddle shoes as he dances the hymn to destruction backward. Read Gregory Corso's BOMB again if you didn't the first time: Bruce Conner will still be dancing (with his eyes) to a tune that only just now came into his head. --John Fles
