

Document Citation

Title	Hail Mary
Author(s)
Source	Publisher name not available
Date
Type	synopsis
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects
Film Subjects	Je vous salue Marie (Hail Mary), Godard, Jean Luc, 1985

PROGRAM # 47

TITRE : "JE VOUS SALUE, MARIE"

TITLE : "HAIL MARY"

GAUGE : 35 mm

RATIO : 1:66

RUNNING TIME : 1h 43

AUTHOR : Jean-Luc GODARD

DATE : 1985

ACTORS : Myriem ROUSSEL
Juliette BINOCHÉ
Thierry LACOSTE

SYNOPSIS :

It is said in the film: "Life was wanted. Desired. Foreseen. Well-ordered." And this life, fallen from the heavens above, will begin to develop in Mary's body. Mary is a basketball-playing gas-station attendant. She receives the Annunciation of her expected child by jetliner and she must fend off the advances of her frustrated boyfriend, Joseph, who believes that the only possible communication is sexual. Mary goes through her pregnancy and gives birth to Jesus. Although the subject of the film is metaphysical, Godard treats it in a physical way.