

Document Citation

Title	Acting our age
Author(s)
Source	Publisher name not available
Date
Type	flyer
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	2
Subjects
Film Subjects	Acting our age, Aviad, Michal, 1987

"...realistic and honest, provocative and sensual—an hour package of role models and friends who can both inspire and warn us about the future."

—Gloria Steinem

"...a moving film about aging (+ life!) that touches all of us. Its women share insights, optimism, and courage."

—Alice Walker

*The San Francisco Gray Panthers
Options for Women Over 40
and the Women's Building proudly present the San Francisco premiere of*

Acting Our Age

DIRECTED BY MICHAL AVIAD

A Film About Women Growing Old

Through the struggles and triumphs of six women in their sixties and seventies, "Acting Our Age" tackles subjects which are often taboo: changing body image, sexuality, the reality of family life, money, and death. Their lives and insights reveal the ways our culture devalues older women as well as their often invisible strength, passion, and vision.

Wednesday, November 11, 1987, 7:30 p.m.

The Palace of Fine Arts, San Francisco

Screening followed by Gala Reception with champagne and dessert at the Palace with the filmmakers and the women in the film.

Tickets: $8-$15, sliding scale, On sale after October 1 at Modern Times Bookstore; Old Wives Tales; Aquatic Park Senior Center; Glide Church Seniors; Rosa Parks Senior Center; Salvation Army Senior Center; Potrero Hill Neighborhood House; A Woman's Place Bookstore (Oakland); or mail checks by November 1 to SFWC/"Acting Our Age", 3543 18th Street, San Francisco, CA 94110.

For more information about tickets, transportation, or childcare (must reserve by November 1), call 431-1180. Wheelchair accessible.

Sponsored by:

Louise M. Davies Foundation; Richard and Rhoda Goldman Fund, Evelyn and Walter Haas Jr. Fund, Pacific Bell, U.S. Leasing Corporation.

