WM. CRANSTON JOINS ALLEN BROS. FORCES

William Cranston, formerly manager of the Basil Film Corporation, Toronto and New York, former Canadian franchise-holder for "Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance," has joined the forces of Jules and J. J. Allen, of Toronto. The latter recently purchased both the features named in addition to acquiring the Canadian rights for "Hearts of the World."

Mr. Cranston is at present looking after various details in connection with the presentation of "Hearts of the World" at the Allen Theatres in various Canadian cities while he is also arranging bookings to exhibitors of the two other Griffith productions to start in September.
