

Document Citation

Title	'Man of Aran'
Author(s)
Source	Film Classic Exchange
Date
Type	distributor materials
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects
Film Subjects	Man of Aran, Flaherty, Robert, 1934

"MAN OF ARAN"

16MM SOUND FILM

TRUE LIFE STORY OF MEN WHO LIVE BY THE SEA

To produce this film, two years were spent on the lonely Aran Islands off the coast of Ireland. Native islanders re-live for the film the drama of their daily lives. This film is a genuine record of real people.

Life on Aran depends upon the sea. It is the source of everything which enables society to exist on that locale. Food, in the first instance :- trade and other necessities in the larger scope. The sea is harsh. Terrific storms of the North Atlantic beat upon this rampart with shattering waves that break five hundred feet on the cliff. There is a constant battle with storms. Sharks and other dangers are present in the waters.

"MAN OF ARAN" IS UNIQUE AMONG ALL MOTION PICTURE TRIUMPHS! Never was there a more genuine record of the real lives of real people. Here is the motion picture art at its greatest! The achievement has won world-wide acclaim, and ranks with ROBERT FLAHERTY's other great masterpieces like MOANA and NANOOK OF THE NORTH.

FILM CLASSIC EXCHANGE, 1914 South Vermont Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90007