FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ONE SINGS, THE OTHER DOESN'T, Agnes Varda's complex human comedy following two women from the explosive 60's to the present, opens an exclusive West Coast Premiere engagement this Wednesday (October 26) at the Lumiere Theatre, California near Polk, San Francisco.

Focusing on the friendship between a militant young street singer and the mother of two involved with a suicidal photographer, Agnes Varda's ("Cleo from 5 to 7", "Le Bonheur") ONE SINGS, THE OTHER DOESN'T traces the women's lives over a decade of career struggles, relationships with husbands and lovers, children and ever-expanding feminist consciousness. Shot in Paris, Iran and the lush South of France, the film evokes both Renoir and Simone de Beauvoir as it seeks to reconcile the triumphs and ironies of women searching for self-definition.
