monsoon WEDDING

a MIRA NAIR film

Naseeruddin Shah, Lillete Dubey, Shefali Shetty, Vijay Raaz
USA Films; Directed by Mira Nair
Rated R; 114 minutes; 2002

Here comes the bride... but is she ready? You'll find out in this romantic comedy from New Delhi native Mira Nair. This film is set in contemporary India where bride to be Aditi has to contend with her traditional father Lalit Verma who loves his family dearly but does not have time for their "modern ways." The Punjabi family travels from all over to enjoy the festivities surrounding the wedding. Aditi faces the dilemma of an arranged marriage and how it conflicts with her contemporary take on relationships. We also get to know the stories behind her family members who also have conflicts between past and present. Vijay Raaz as P.K. Dube provides comic relief as the hysterical wedding planner who is busy working and wooing the family's maid.

In Hindi with English subtitles
