Dear Nico-

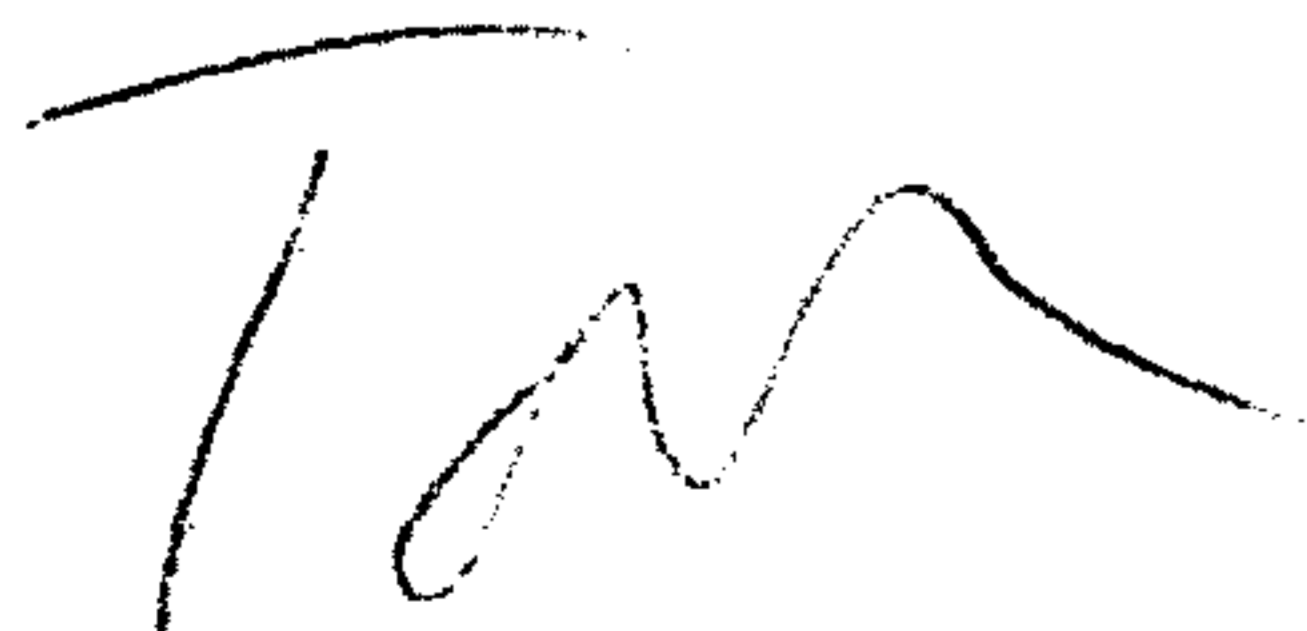

•

See what you think of the ideas proposed in the attached.

I presume you found my note at home on your ogran, and the check. Mundy said they were taking you to the airport that night, so I was surprised to see you stayed another night (happy ~~you~~ liked our little room upstairs) when I returned late. Would have come home before you turned-in had I known you would be there. Perhaps we could have made up our quarrel. I had to leave very early next morning to drive to LA. Presume Mundy & co. still managed, as they said they would, to get you to airport.

As I am poor too, I hope you can find your social secirity number & soon, and send it along with signature on that contract page, so we can get that check out, which you could endorse back to me.

I will phone you when I am next in LA.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'TM' or similar, with a long horizontal stroke at the top and a wavy line below it.
