Film Directed by Luis Bunuel Will Open Here Wednesday

Versatile director Luis Bunuel, who has been celebrated for his surrealist films ("L'Age d'Or"), his realistic ones ("The Young and the Damned") and, most recently, for his romantic version of "Robinson Crusoe," also works in the comedy vein. His comedy of a Mexican bus ride, ("Subida al Cielo," is scheduled to have its first local showing at the Teatro Victoria, 16th and Mission streets, beginning

Wednesday. The film has been highly acclaimed in Europe.

Chaplin, Fields Film At Cinema Guild

Four of the best of the early Charlie Chaplin silent comedies and three of W. C. Fields' funniest short subjects will be shown on one program, beginning tonight at the Berkeley Cinema Guild, Telegraph near Haste, Berkeley. The Chaplin films are "The Rink," "The Vagabond," "The Adventurer" and "Easy Street."
