BRAZIL

HOW TASTY WAS MY LITTLE FRENCHMAN

Directed by Nelson Pereira dos Santos

A slyly entertaining mixture of anthropology, black humour, gorgeous color photography, ubiquitous nudity and unsettling prophecy, about a 16th-century French explorer who tries to integrate himself into the Indian tribe he is captured by, but is finally incorporated into the tribe only by being eaten.

Brazil, 1971. 80 mins. Color. Rental: 175
In Tupi dialect with English subtitles.
