PACIFIC FILM ARCHIVE PRESENTS

Seisaku's Wife

NAATA is also co-sponsoring an evening of films by maverick Japanese director Yasuzo Masumura (part of the PFA series on the director, presented every Sunday in March). Chuck Stephens called Masumura "one of the greatest, gravest social satirists" of the 1950s and 1960s, and his films "seriously berserk and sumptuously nihilistic." The brilliant SEISAKU'S WIFE stars Ayako Wakao in a story linking amour fou and antiwar passions. NAKANO SPY SCHOOL is a docu-style spy thriller that is by turns dour, humorous, and finally devastatingly on point about individual identity in a regimented society.
