When the marine destroyer "Vengeur" sails into the port of Brest, it carries with it Querelle, a lethally handsome seaman who is feared and desired by all who meet him. A tough, brutal loner involved in a drug smuggling deal, Querelle casually kills his partner and frames someone else for the murder. Through a series of involvements with an assortment of characters - his own long lost brother, the bawdy proprietor of a bordello, her terrifying pimp, a corrupt policeman, a young prostitute - Querelle is both hunter and prey, a beautiful sinner who follows an inexorable path toward his own destruction.
