

Document Citation

Title	'Hollywood Canteen'
Author(s)
Source	Publisher name not available
Date
Type	synopsis
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects
Film Subjects	Hollywood Canteen, Daves, Delmer, 1944

"HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN"

Warner Bros.

HERE'S a movie with a myriad of stars—well, almost that many. About a young sergeant, Bob Hutton, whose dream girl is a movie star, Joan Leslie. He really meets her and marries her, like in a fairy tale. Bob and his buddy, Dane Clark, visit the Hollywood Canteen for the first time and are flabbergasted to see all the big stars wait on tables and dance with the boys and entertain. Cast consists of the Andrews Sisters, Jack Carson, Jane Wyman, Joe E. Brown, Carmen Cavallero, Bette Davis, John Garfield, Jack Benny, Roy Rogers and Trigger, and more! You'll love Bob; he's so boyish and so thrilled with all his new experiences while on furlough. Joan is sweet and charming and these two make a delightful duo. A bargain in entertainment!