COME BACK TO THE 5 & DIME JIMMY DEAN, JIMMY DEAN

43

Sandy Dennis, Cher and Karen Black portray three women; the first a dreamer holding fast to her fantasies, the second an aging small town belle, the last a tortured hard luck girl. In this Robert Altman (*M*A*S*H*, Nashville) film the three are brought together in a small Texas town for the reunion of the "Disciples of Jimmy Dean." It is 1975, twenty years since the actor's untimely death. The fantasies each had about Dean are faded, but as they join together the magic is restored. The film moves back and forth from the misty past of 1955 to the mirrored Five and Dime of 1975. "Altman's over-all directing is a model of tenderness and tact. . .He's a great director." --Pauline Kael, New Yorker --SM
