

Document Citation

|               |                                 |
|---------------|---------------------------------|
| Title         | The big heat             |
| Author(s)     |                                 |
| Source        | Audio Brandon Films      |
| Date          | 1975                            |
| Type          | distributor materials           |
| Language      | English                         |
| Pagination    | 29                              |
| No. of Pages  | 1                               |
| Subjects      |                                 |
| Film Subjects | The big heat, Lang, Fritz, 1953 |

THE BIG HEAT

Glenn Ford, Lee Marvin, Gloria Grahame, Jocelyn Brando, Alexander Scourby

One of the best gangster melodramas of all time, THE BIG HEAT portrays the relentless investigations of a police detective (Glenn Ford) into underworld activities, following the suicide of a corrupt police officer. His dangerous mission leads him into a terrifying world of ruthless criminals and hostile police, all of whom are determined to stop him. Several powerful sequences, including the famous scene in which a hood (Lee Marvin) hurls boiling coffee in the face of his girl friend (Gloria Grahame), highlight this powerful film, directed by Fritz Lang.

90 mins.

AUDIO BRANDON FILMS - 1975/1976 Catalog