

Document Citation

Title Under the Paris sky

Author(s)

Source Discina International

Date 1952

Type exhibitor manual

Language English

Pagination

No. of Pages 5

Subjects

Film Subjects Sous le ciel de Paris (Under the Paris sky), Duvivier, Julien, 1951

written and directed by

A DISCINA INTERNATIONAL FILMS RELEASE

ULIEN DUVIVIER

A REGINA-FILMSONOR PRODUCTION

66 LA BELLE PAREE ...

As for Duvivier's picture, 'Under the Paris Sky', it is frankly designed as a cross-section of the wonderful city beside the Seine. Mystery, pathos, humor, morbidity, fear and romance, plus a good many other sensations, are all intermingled in this scan of the lives of several people in the city upon which you look from the Eiffel Tower. There's the poor little old lady who lives in a garret and keeps a lot of cats. There are the mad sculptor, the medical student, the beautiful dress model, the vegetable merchant's child, the factory worker and the innocent young lady just arrived from out of town. It is a picture of Frenchmen in Paris, not Americans, and it catches the 'feel' of the city in views and vistas that only Frenchmen usually see. Romantic, harsh and sentimental, it is brilliantly directed and finely played by a large cast of first-rate French actors." - Crowther, N. Y. Times

2-100

NAME:

Julien Duvivier

OCCUPATION:

Movie Director

EXPERIENCE: "Pepe le Moko",

"Carnet de Bal"
"The End Of A Day"

REFERENCE: "Mr. Duvivier is nobody's tyro at handling a drama with numerous threads. Neither is he unaccomplished at creating atmosphere and mood. His camera seems blessed with the additional senses of touch and smell.

And it is in an abundance and variety of sensuous stimuli that the ever-intriguing 'Under The Paris Sky' (his latest film) is distinct."

—Bosley Crowther, N.Y. Times

Under the Paris Sky

The PARIS 5th Ave. & 58th St. • MU. 8-0134

2-102

characters and script material fascinating... a thoroughly splendid picture."

— Irene Thirer, N. Y. Post

1-100

"Duvivier's

sometimes shocking, sometimes sentimental, sometimes picturesque, sometimes touching."

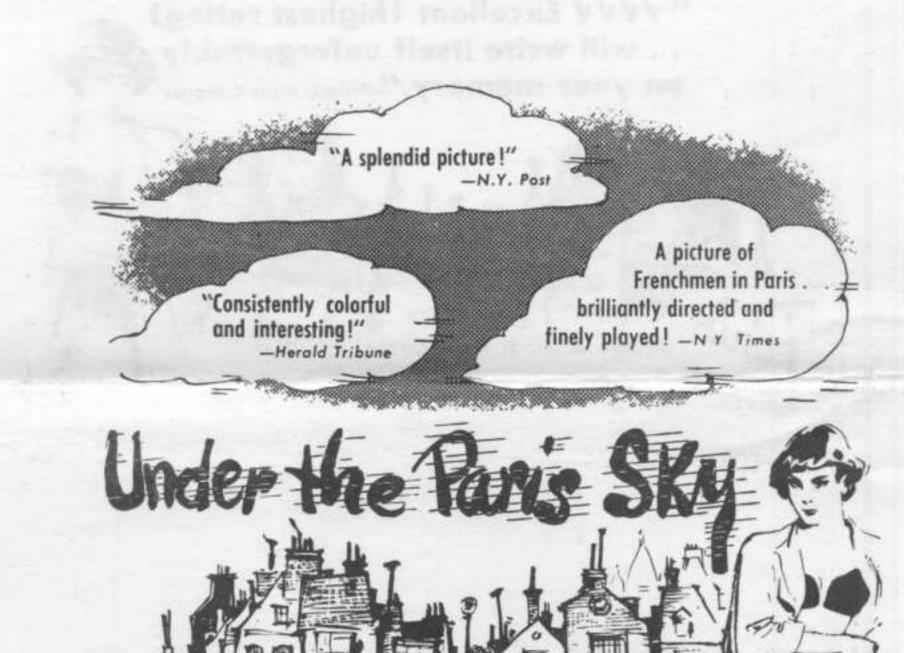

1-101

"MR. DUVIVIER'S PICTURE

is feverish and romantic—a drama with numerous threads, balanced with ample imagination and cinema style. The excellent performances continually intrigue." (Crowther, N.Y. Times) . . . "A consistently colorful and interesting motion picture, sometimes shocking, sometimes sentimental, sometimes picturesque and sometimes touching." (Guernsey, Herald Tribune) . . . "Excellent! Another French hit, a thoroughly splendid picture." (Irene Thirer, N.Y. Post)

2-101

Feature at: 1:00, 2:50, 4:40, 6:30, 8:25, 10:15

2-103

"A picture of Frenchmen in Paris . . . brilliantly directed and finely played by a large cast of first-rate actors."

—Crowther, N.Y. Times

"Excellent (highest rating).

A splendid picture."—Irene Thirer, N.Y. Post

"An engrossing study; a delicate weaving of tragedy and humor."

-Rose Pelswick, Journal-American

"A consistently colorful and interesting film, sometimes shocking, sometimes sentimental, sometimes picturesque, sometimes touching."—Guernsey, Herald Tribune

"An absorbing drama. *** 1/2 *."

—Wanda Hale, Daily News

"A brilliant film; should have a long, popular run." -Quinn, Daily Mirror

Under the Pair Sky

"A living film tapestry of the French capital; captures its citizens' carefree passions and pathos."—World-Telegram-Sun

2-105

66 The picture is by turns romantic and startlingly realistic, tense and casual, funny and foreboding."

1-102

of Frenchmen in Paris . . . brilliantly directed and finely played."

1-103

DISCINA INTERNATIONAL FILMS CORPORATION 250 WEST 57th STREET, NEW YORK 19, N. Y. Tel. Plaza 7-5484

2-106

If so, heed film fancier
Otis L. Guernsey, Jr.
of the Herald Tribune,
who recommends
"Duvivier's latest gem
—to satisfy the appetite
for better pictures."

Under the Paris Sky
The Paris 5th Ave. & 58th St. - MU 8-0134

2-107

Mystery, pathos, humor morbidity, fear and romance, plus a good many other sensations, are all intermingled in this scan of the lives of several people. It is brilliantly directed and finely played." — Crowther, N. Y. Times

a in French Movie

Sky

ul Frankeur, Raymond Hermantier, Sylvie,
aristiane Lenier, Marcelle Production; Directed Adapy redits: A Regina and Arys ario by Dialog Spoken lierre Duvivier; Letevre and Henri Jeanson; Spoken
lation by Rene Written by Henri Letevre; Narration
Letevre; Narrat

During the course of this French camera travels from one to ano camera travels from one to and the sensationally shocking. Stories the sensationally shocking the sensationally shocking of the sensationally are characters in most of the sensational are stories.

characters in most of these stories in most of these stories in are photographical are photographical authentic Parisien exteriors to Inlied of reality Director authentic Parisien exteriors to achieve properties of reality. Director art house in his climaxos on the concentrator in his climaxos on the concentrator in his climaxos.

whose name is familiar to art house the sensational is one operation on a hung serven, in close-ups. an operation

Most sensational is one which brings huma huma sereen, in close-ups, an operation on English sereen, in close-ups, an operation, spoken the various heart. Occusional narration, etween the heart bridge the gaps between the few English helps while excellent sound that before while excellent sound that superfluous explain the actions so well stories which appear seem superfluous lish titles which appear seem superfluous.

explain the actions so well that the few light titles which appear seem superfluous.

Institutes which appear seem superior a mornstrong the characters seen on a mornstrong the characters seen on a mornstrong the characters seen on a mornmornstrong the characters seen on a mornstrong the characters seen on a mornmornstrong the characters seen on a mornstrong the characters seen on a mornmornstrong the characters seen on a mornmornstrong the characters seen on a mornstrong t

Blancard,

strike or the lofty Eastern dome of Sacré-Coeur, a bevy of fashion models or a dead body floating in the Seine, its glimpses of Paris Carry intimate human connotations and the city on display is hardly the tourist cynosure. The recurrent sentimental tendencies of the picture are not diminished by the lush voice and prose of the English narrator, but on the whole Duvivier may be praised for making many individual and incisive comments on a orms a brilliant emergency

therwise known as the Seine.

ide, Duvivier exhibits a who has just failed his

lations (Daniel Ivernel)

The Manual production of the second

References to symbolism by New York critics in their reviews of Julien Duvivier's "Under the Paris Sky," which opened at the Paris, N. Y., Monday (5), brought to mind of observers a recent incident in France. Critics there went all out for a pic, praising particularly the unusual heartbeat effect the director got as his camera closed in on his

The director, amazed to read about the "heartbeat," went back to have another look at the film. Then he figured the pulsations in the pic. He had been working in an old, beaten-up studio. The tracks on which the camera was dollied were bent and the crewmen had a hard time pushing it forward steadily. Result: the highly-praised "heart-

> DISCINA INTERNATIONAL FILMS CORPORATION 250 WEST 57th STREET, NEW YORK 19, N. Y.

> > PHONES: PLAZA 7-5484-5-6