SYNOPSIS :

Don Jose, a soldier, stands by a cigarette factory. Many young girls work there, but it is Carmen who is the focus of attention. She is not interested in anyone except Don Jose, who barely glances at her. Without hesitation, she goes up to him and tries to seduce him. From here, Carmen becomes the center of a tragedy in which men are only puppets. Don Jose, the toreador Escamillo, all fall victim to her spell as she pursues her gypsy impulses to the very end.
