

Document Citation

Title	The brigand brothers
Author(s)	N. Svolkein
Source	Pacific Film Archive
Date
Type	intertitles
Language
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects	Goncharov, Vasili
Film Subjects	Bratya Razboiniki, Goncharov, Vasili, 1912

THE BRIGAND BROTHERS

- 1) Near the Volga at night, the bandits sat around the fires...
- 2) "I'll tell you about my grief".
- 3) "My brother and I were orphaned early...Our father drowned in the river..."
- 4) "...and the step-mother turned us away from our home..."
- 5) "We grew up in a farmer's family and from early childhood had to work on his land. We both fell in love with the farmer's daughter ..."
- 6) "One day an accident happened. My brother did not watch the herd and it had trampled a little calf to death..."
- 7) "Go away from my house!"
- 8) "I've had enough of the beggar's life! Let's try our luck on the road!"
- 9) "Brother! Have pity on him!"
- 10) "And so the days went by happily: we robbed and then we feasted..."
- 11) "But we haven't walked free for long. We were captured and put into prison. A lucky chance helped us to escape..."
- 12) "Water!"
- 13) "Farewell, brother!"
- 14) "Since then my heart has turned to stone. But sometimes remembering my brother's plea, I spare an old man on the road..."

Translation" N Svolkein

1912
Vasili Goncharov
Bratya Razboiniki