ANGELA.

As Mafia wives go, Carmela Soprano has nothing on Angela. Married to an older, drug-dealing don, she dutifully runs her husband's shoe store, but subtly takes on other duties as she hides drugs inside shoe boxes and makes deliveries in the sleazier districts of Palermo. She observes her husband's cronies with a poker face. No one would know that she longs for more. And then one day she gets more – Masino, her husband's lieutenant. The lust and desire are palpable, and they both do their best to avoid their desires, until finally they succumb. Now things really heat up. Passion battles power in Roberta Torre's tale of love run amok in the underworld. A First Look Pictures release.
