"ANY WHICH WAY YOU CAN"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clint Eastwood, hero of one of the most popular movies of all time, "Every Which Way But Loose," is back again as the bare-knuckled brawler, Philo Beddoe in the new comedy-adventure, "ANY WHICH WAY YOU CAN," opening Wednesday, December 17th at the Alexandria, St. Francis and Spruce D/I in San Francisco and the Serra Theatre in Daly City.

Returning with Clint are Clyde (the Orangutan), Sondra Locke, Geoffrey Lewis, William Smith, Harry Guardino and Ruth Gordon.

Added to the entire production is one of the finest assemblages of country songs performed by Ray Charles, Fats Domino, Jim Stafford, John Duncan, Gene Watson, John Durrill and Glen Campbell.

From Warner Bros., "ANY WHICH WAY YOU CAN" was directed by Buddy Van Horn and produced by Robert Daly. The film is rated 'PG' and the running time is 115 minutes.
