

Document Citation

Title	Satan triumphant
Author(s)
Source	Publisher name not available
Date
Type	intertitles
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	3
Subjects
Film Subjects	Satana likuiushchii (Satan triumphant), Protazanov, Iakov Aleksandrovich, 1917

SATAN TRIUMPHANT

Part I

1917

- 1) Evil manifests itself in various forms in this world; it appears openly as well as secretly
- 2) The ascetic sermons of pastor Talnoks did not leave the faithful at peace with themselves
- 3) We do not need it. It suggests profane vanity
- 4) Are you not ashamed? You should try to fight the temptation
- 5) There were only two people who understood the pastor: Esfir - his late wife's sister, and her husband, the painter Pavel
- 6) Stop it. This is not the right place for telling jokes!
- 7) Under the pastor's influence Esfir turned out to be more like a sister than a wife to Pavel
- 8) It was a gloomy, stormy night
- 9) Look! It seems that our God is going to visit our world lost in sin
- 10) I have lost my way and sprained my foot. May I come in?
- 11) We do not drink wine. It is a sin.
- Pardon? And has the pastor forgotten the wedding in Cþana?
- 12) To the church? When the sun is shining so brightly? No thank you
- 13) Poor creature! All your saints will look like your wife
- 14) And you, so young and beautiful, what do you need the pastor's stupid sermons for?
- 15) Please, do not, I will get to the church on my own
- 16) You have a beautiful wife. Do not forget your conjugal rite
- 17) The stranger has recovered. The last day of his stay at the Pastor's has come
- 18) Should that beautiful woman, that neck, those eyes, really belong to the hunch-back?

19) Is this what nature has wanted?

20) What is it? What have you just been playing?

20a) "Hymn of the triumphant..."

21) You are mine...mine...mine...

22) The next morning the stranger has disappeared as suddenly as he turned up

23) You are working too much, Esfir...You do not take care of yourself...

24) But I am telling you: overcome the temptation and protect your virginity

25) Pavel decided to paint from memory a portrait of the stranger

26) Get out! I know, who you are!

27) Satan!

28) Enjoy yourselves, my friends! All your life belongs to you!

29) Yes, the guest was right, right about everything

30) What did you say? That this painting is 200 years old?

31) Talnoks did not buy the painting from the antique dealer, but he could not forget it

32) And for the first time in his life he wished he was not poor

33) I will go to the library

34) Can you imagine? They have stolen a painting from my shop. I should have offered it to Pastor Talnoks as a present yesterday...

35) The service should begin and the Pastor is not here...

The end of the film has not been preserved. Talnoks dies <sup>in</sup> at the church where he comes to meet Esfir under the portrait of the Satan. At the same time amidst falling timber dies the hunch-back having found them together.

THE END

Screenplay: O. Blazhevich
Director: Protazanov
Camera: F. Burgasov

---

Cast

Father + Son: Mojukine

Paul
Artist
Hauptmann } : P. Pavlov

Esfir, His wife: N. Lisenko

---

Satan: A. Chabrov

Tungva: V. Orlova

Mikhailis, painter, her father: Nekrasov