The New York Times.

"A FASCINATING FILM! '8½' is entertainment that will really make you sit up straight and think!

"Fellini has managed to compress so much drollery and wit, so much satire on social aberrations, so much sardonic comment on sex and even a bit of travesty of Freud . . . '8½' harbors some elegant treasures . . . One of the most delightful fabrications is a wild and robust fantasy in which the director sees himself as the master of a harem of all the women he has known (or desired) ordering them to do his bidding, slapping them with a whip, receiving their utter adulation in a state of complete harmony . . . Fellini's tremendous pictorial poetry, his intimations of pathos and longing, his skill with the silly and grotesque . . . '8½' has much that is wonderful."
