

Document Citation

Title	'My life to live,' new Jean-Luc Godard Film starring Anna Karina
Author(s)
Source	Publisher name not available
Date
Type	article
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects
Film Subjects	Vivre sa vie (My life to live), Godard, Jean Luc, 1962

“MY LIFE TO LIVE,” NEW JEAN-LUC GODARD FILM STARRING ANNA KARINA OPENS_____ at the_____ THEATRE

“My Life To Live” winner of the Special Jury Award at the 1962 Venice Film Festival, will open its premier engagement at the _____ Theatre on _____.

Jean-Luc Godard, whose “Breathless” introduced the French new wave to American audiences, wrote and directed “My Life To Live,” his second film to be shown in this country.

Anna Karina, beautiful young Danish-born wife of the writer-director, stars as an amiable and aimless young Parisienne whose poignant and desperate search for love and security leads her from casual promiscuity into the world of prostitution. The story is told in twelve episodes.

Saddy Rebbot, Andre Labartre, Brice Parain, Giselle Schlumberger, Monique Messine and E. Schlumberger are featured in important roles.

“My Life To Live” is being distributed by Pathe Contemporary Films.