

Document Citation

|               |                                                                                                  |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Title         | Le destin fabuleux de Desiree Clary                                                       |
| Author(s)     |                                                                                                  |
| Source        | New York Film Festival                                                                    |
| Date          | 1993                                                                                             |
| Type          | program note                                                                                     |
| Language      | English                                                                                          |
| Pagination    |                                                                                                  |
| No. of Pages  | 1                                                                                                |
| Subjects      |                                                                                                  |
| Film Subjects | Le destin fabuleux de Désirée Clary (The fabulous destiny of Desiree Clary), Guitry, Sacha, 1942 |

LE DESTIN FABULEUX DE DESIREE CLARY / THE FABULOUS DESTINY OF DESIREE CLARY

(1942; 108 minutes)

Another fascinating “guilt-trip” of an historical character, this time Napoleon’s first love, Desirée Clary. When he jilts her for Josephine, Napoleon sets in motion a revenge plot that culminates years after he has become Emperor and she Queen of Sweden.

Wednesday, October 6: 4:30 and 9 pm; Thursday, October 7: 2 pm

NYEF 1993