FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

"THE SHELTERING SKY"

"THE SHELTERING SKY," a classic love story from Warner Bros., opens Friday, January 11, 1990 at the following theatres: Kabuki - San Francisco, Marin - Sausalito, Emery Bay - Emeryville, Century Almaden - San Jose, Varsity - Palo Alto, and Tower - Sacramento.

"THE SHELTERING SKY", filmed on location in the desert of North Africa, examines the disintegrating relationship between a married American couple who are lifelong travellers. Accompanied by their socialite friend, they journey to Tangier and the Sahara, where the ancient desert cultures transform the trio profoundly.

Warner Bros. Presents A Jeremy Thomas Production of A Film by Bernardo Bertolucci starring Debra Winger and John Malkovich. The film is directed by Bernardo Bertolucci and produced by Jeremy Thomas. The screenplay was written by Mark Peploe and Bernardo Bertolucci, based on the book by Paul Bowles.

"THE SHELTERING SKY" is rated 'R' and the running time is 133 minutes.
