

Document Citation

Title	Empty quarter
Author(s)
Source	Program for Art on Film
Date
Type	synopsis
Language	English
Pagination
No. of Pages	1
Subjects
Film Subjects	Une femme en Afrique (Empty quarter), Depardon, Raymond, 1985

Films/videos distributed by your company

Title

Original Title

Data

Directors

Narrator

Cast

Distributor

Synopsis

EMPTY QUARTER

FEMME EN AFRIQUE, UNE

87 min. col. 35mm 1985 France French

Raymond Depardon

Raymond Depardon

Françoise Prenant

Interama

Fictional film by French photographer and documentary filmmaker Raymond Depardon (b.1942) about a photojournalist who becomes obsessed with an enigmatic woman while awaiting his next assignment in North Africa. They embark on an erotic voyage across the desert. Explores the themes of loneliness, frustration, and desire. Shot in the first-person camera technique, with the narrator never appearing on screen.

Cannes Film Festival Perspectives du Cinema, 1985

Chicago Tribune, 9 Jul 87; Village Voice, 21 Oct 86;

Boston Globe, 14 Oct 86

Awards

Reviews

Good Synopsis

Formats available (circle all that apply):

35mm

16mm

institutional video

home video

c1991 PROGRAM FOR ART ON FILM 980 MADISON AVE. NYC 10021