We are pleased to welcome the distinguished Italian film director Francesco Rosi, whose films screen this month at the Pacific Film Archive. Mr. Rosi and his films are the recipients of numerous international awards, including the Venice Film Festival's Special Jury Prize and Golden Lion, the Cannes Film Festival's Grand Prize, an Oscar nomination for Best Foreign Picture, the Berlin Film Festival's Best Director Award, and this year's San Francisco International Film Festival's Kurosawa Award.

We hope you will join us to honor Mr. Rosi on the occasion of his retrospective at the Pacific Film Archive.
