

Document Citation

| | |
|---------------|--------------------------------|
| Title | Show people |
| Author(s) | Tom Luddy |
| Source | Pacific Film Archive |
| Date | |
| Type | program note |
| Language | English |
| Pagination | |
| No. of Pages | 1 |
| Subjects | |
| Film Subjects | Show people, Vidor, King, 1928 |

SUNDAY, MARCH 31

HOLLYWOOD ON HOLLYWOOD
SHOW PEOPLE' 4:30 & 8:00

Marion Davies proves herself a superb comedienne in this charming King Vidor silent. She plays a star-struck country girl who arrives in Hollywood with great fanfare, Southern Colonel father and all, only to find herself battling cream pies as an extra. The behind-the-scenes glimpses of Hollywood are fascinating, and well-integrated into some first-rate slapstick and satire. (1928, 80 mins)